Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois
In Grip of Unseasonable Weather

Memphis, Tenn., March 16.—Five persons were killed and 50 injured in a tornado which struck Savage, Miss., last night, according to reports to the Red Cross here today.

Several persons were killed at other towns in the path of the tornado, the reports stated.

Reports were to the effect that every house in the town of Savage was razed by the wind, which uprooted trees for a great distance. This is the second time within a month that the little town has been in the path of a damaging windstorm.

Cleveland, March 16.—While the fury of the gale which whipped northern Ohio with a velocity of 52 miles an hour, during the early hour today, abated as the day advanced, a sudden drop of 24 degrees in the temperature presaged the advent of sleet and snow from the West.

Three persons were injured, none seriously in Cleveland. Street car and interurban traffic was impeded on many lines, hundreds of telegraph, telephone and high tension wires were torn loose from the poles and fell to the street.

Plate glass windows were broken and some light structures were blown down by the force of the wind.

The storm covered a large area, and wire communication was in poor condition throughout the day.

At times Cleveland as well as other cities was practically cut off from outside communication either by telephone or graph or telegraph.

Elyria, March 16.—The most severe storm of the winter combined rain and wind, did extensive damage in this section of the state today.

The entire Wooster and Mansfield division of the Cleveland, Columbus and Southwestern Electric Company is out of commission while 28 poles on the Elyria division at Dover, near Cleveland, are down but service is being maintained with all limited service suspended.

A chimney toppled over and crashed through the roof of the Cluey restaurant. Firemen extinguished the blaze. Many trees were blown down and barns unroofed.

Columbus, March 16.—A sixty mile an hour gale here this morning caused considerable property loss. Early reports on the amount of the damage done by the storm were meager.

Chicago, March 16.—Crippled rail, telephone and telegraph communications were slowly being restored throughout the middlewestern states today following snow, sleet and rain storms over a wide area. Clear and unseasonably cold weather prevailed over most of the states with rising temperature predicted.

Many cities in Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois reported damage amounting to thousands of dollars to telephone lines and property.

A storm was raging in the panhandle region in Texas.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 16.—Wire communication, north, south and west of Pittsburgh, was badly crippled this forenoon, following a heavy wind storm which raged in the early morning hours.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company was hardest hit. Many wires were entirely lost between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, Cleveland, and Ohio, and West Virginia points. What few wires were working were "swinging." This interfered with telegraphic communication.

Washington, March 16.—Steadily increasing in velocity and intensity, the driving wind, rain and sleet storm now sweeping across the Missouri valley and the middle west will move rapidly northeastward across the United States and the Atlantic ocean to Europe, the weather bureau declared today.

The full fury of the storm, according to the government forecasts will center today and tonight around the lower lake regions and the north Atlantic coast, notably western New York, Western Pennsylvania and New England.

Such intensity is the disturbance that the Weather Bureau predicted the storm would pass steadily on to Europe.

REDUCTION OF INCOME TAXES WILL BE ISSUE

Administration to Come Forward With Recommendation for Campaign

RICH MUST PAY SHARE

Officials of Opinion That Present System is Hardship on Poor.

Washington, March 16.—When the next Congress convenes, the administration will come forward and present as a campaign issue reduction of income tax rates and a readjustment of the tax laws along other lines so that the burden of government operating expenses can be more equally divided, or shifted from the poor to the rich, it was learned authoritatively today.

Treasury experts on revenue already are convinced that the burden of taxation borne by the wage earning classes is excessive, and the program of the treasury will be to reduce that burden in so far as that may be possible by a readjustment of tax liability. This will involve modification of some of the existing provisions of the revenue act of 1921. Many of them have been found in actual practice to be wholly ineffectual in producing revenue that they were designed to produce. It is now found by treasury actuaries that the chief reason for this deficiency is the legal conflict arising out of hazy verbiage in the act itself, and that the law needs radical change.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has decided upon a policy of recommending lowering of the tax burden generally. No formal conclusions are ready to be announced, but the treasury will renew its program for a lowering of surtax rates and revisions along other lines that will directly affect the small taxpayer.

SAY FABRIC BILL UNFAIR MEASURE

Columbus, March 16.—Resolutions declaring the "truth in fabric" bill now before the State Legislature to be "unjust, unfair and unworkable," were adopted at the closing session of the eighth annual convention here of the Ohio Retail Dry Goods Association. The association elected C. W. Patterson, Findlay, president; H. C. Guckenberger, Cincinnati, vice president and Robert Lazarus, Columbus, treasurer.

Lynn Ravenna, Columbus, was re-elected secretary; Mr. Patterson and Mr. Guckenberger were re-elected directors, and Mr. Lazarus and Joseph Hitt, Urbana, were named as new members of the board.

WORLD ATTENTION IS CHALLENGED BY MOVE OF SUN GOVERNMENT

Failing to Obtain Recognition From American Officials
Turn Eyes Toward Britain—Far-Reaching Possibilities.

Washington, March 16.—Failing to obtain aid from the United States, the South China government of Sun Yat Sen will now seek to enter into close political and commercial relationships with Great Britain and will make no further attempt to secure recognition from the American government, International News Service learned today.

This new and startling development in far eastern affairs is expected to challenge attention throughout the world because of the unlimited possibilities growing out of an alliance between the British and the military and civil forces in South China which are seeking the overthrow of the Peking government, now recognized by most of the world powers.

The South China government, according to Ma Soo, official representative of Dr. Sun Yat Sen in this country, has "come back with a vengeance," after being twice overthrown.

A nation-wide effort made to save from the gallows Ralph Baker, a 15-year-old mountain boy from Durham, Georgia, and his 23-year-old brother, George, has been partially successful.

The boys were convicted of killing a deputy sheriff and sentenced to death. It is said little Ralph intervened in a fight in which his brother and the deputy were engaged and shot the man when he feared his brother would be severely beaten. The boys have been reprieved until April 13, and the sentence of the younger has been commuted to life imprisonment.

"We have looked across the Pacific to the new world and have looked in vain.

"Patiently we have listened to long protestations of friendship and generous promises of aid, but there seems little prospect of these ever being materialized. In the meantime, China remains undeveloped.

"It seems to us advisable that we should now try to enlist the aid and co-operation of Great Britain in the development of China's immense resources. Being eminently practical, both the British and the Republican leaders of China must have by this time realized the futility of continuing further a policy of hostility towards one another. The time has now come for them to adopt a saner policy whereby the legitimate interests of both parties can be served."

Ma said that not during the past ten years had the feeling between the British and China in the south been as good as at present. As an example he pointed to the "liberal treatment" accorded Dr. Sun by British officials.

The governor's proclamation urges that both mature and young seek to attain a better understanding of tree and bird life, saying that "perhaps, some day we may communicate with them in ways not yet apparent to our finite minds."

VILLAGE MAYORS SCORED IN TALK

RUSSELL WINS HIS DIVORCE ACTION

London, March 16.—A verdict in favor of the plaintiff was rendered today in the sensational divorce action by the Hon. John Hugo Russell, son of Lord Ampthill against his beautiful young wife Christabel Hart Russell.

This was the second divorce action the husband had brought, the first being in favor of the wife.

Russell denied the paternity of his wife's baby, naming E. J. Mayer, a former resident of New York City, co-respondent.

Russell obtained a divorce on the ground of infidelity, a decree nisi being handed down by Justice Hill.

The jury exonerated Mayer, but found Mrs. Russell guilty of misconduct with another man whose name was not revealed.

GERMANS WRECK FRENCH TROOP TRAIN IN RUHR

One Killed and Six Injured in Blocking of Switch Which Is Charged to Natives—France Rejects Offers of Settlement

Paris, March 16.—One French were derailed.

Paris, March 16.—Overtures from a third power to France in behalf of Germany for settlement of the Ruhr problems is not satisfactory to France, it was announced at the foreign office this afternoon.

Foreign office officials said that they had no knowledge that a third power is about to attempt mediation of the Franco-German question.

"If any proposals come for a settlement they must come direct from Germany," said a foreign office at-tache.

LODGE CELEBRATES 16TH ANNIVERSARY

An interesting program and a social time, was enjoyed by the members of Pride of Xenia Council, No. 140, Daughters of America, in celebration of the 16th anniversary of the order, at the lodge hall, Thursday night.

The arrangements and success of the evening, were in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. W. C. Horner, chairman, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Elmer Shoemaker, Mrs. Henry Buckles, and Mrs. Edward Hubbard. Members of the Lodge, their families and friends numbering about 160 people, attended the affair.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the entire audience, a recitation, by Ida Haines, and a dialogue "The Mother and the Six Fairies," in which the characters were taken by Esther Ford, the mother, Madred Horner, Miriam and Marie Kafory, Ellen Haines, Dorothy McCoy, and Eleanor Moore. An interesting paper on different members of the order, was read by Mrs. Alberta Ford. "Our Flag" was recited by Marjorie Shoemaker, followed by a song, by Miss Helen Ford, and an specialty, by Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell Turner. Mrs. Mattie Humston, of Springfield, a member of the local lodge, gave a clever monologue. A beautiful tableau, depicting the principles of the order, and the efforts of the lodge to place the Bible in the schools, was presented, under the direction of Mrs. Horner. The characters of the tableau were Goddess of Liberty, Mrs. Raymond McCoy; Uncle Sam, Frank Sheets, and seven school children, the same characters that appeared in "The Mother and the Six Fairies." The Bible was presented to the schools by little Miss Marjorie Shoemaker.

The program was interspersed by music from the orchestra, composed of Miss Imogene Mullen, at the piano, Donald Currie, saxophone, and William Horner drums, which furnished music for dancing, which was enjoyed after the program.

HEALTH TALK GIVEN BEFORE HOME CLUB

Mrs. M. R. Snodgrass, public health nurse, gave an interesting and instructive address on "Child Welfare" before the members of the Home Club at the home of Mrs. Albert Bickett, on the Jamestown pike, Wednesday afternoon. Thirteen members and three visitors enjoyed the meeting.

Mrs. Snodgrass spoke of the work done by different organizations and in the schools, by examination of children, to discover abnormal conditions, and to point out means to correct it where possible. Very common handicaps of children are adenoids and diseased tonsils, which affect them mentally and physically according to Mrs. Snodgrass, resulting in low mentality and deformities of nose and mouth. These in later years may result in more serious diseases as tuberculosis and goitre, she said.

At the close of her talk, many questions were asked by those present, which were answered by Mrs. Snodgrass. A rising vote of thanks was extended her.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bickett.

KIDNEY DISEASE

Clean Up Poison Soaked Kidneys Advises Dr. Carey

Thousands Die Every Year Because They Allow Poisonous Deposits to Accumulate In Kidneys

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts, says Dr. Carey; they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been using my famous Prescription No. 777 for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffs under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or side-ache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777 right away.

It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon.

You can obtain it at Sayre and Hemphill.

CUPID FAILS TO MAKE SHOWING DURING MONTH

What has become of Cupid, the little love beggar, who trots around in his all-in-alls and shoots a line of goot fastened to a little trick arrow?

Attaches of Probate Court are asking themselves this question, because Hymen's aid must be hiding out some place during the cold spell according to the Marriage Record book.

The book shows that up until Friday morning not a marriage license had been issued in Probate Court since March 3, which is almost two weeks that the little cuss has been loafing on the job.

Court officials thought this story might prove an advertisement to create a rush of Saturday business but they refused to offer a bargain rate for licenses in order to speed up business.

Indications are March will be a low month in point of licenses this year.

OHIO'S NARCOTIC LAWS TO CONFORM WITH FEDERAL ACTS

Columbus, March 16—Ohio narcotic laws will be in conformity with the federal statutes if the governor signs the bill by Senator Leever, which was passed in the House today.

Five bills were sent over to the Senate today by passage in the House. The bills passed are:

By Anderson, to authorize the transfer of 90 acres of the Belmont County experiment farm to the state board of health as a site for a tuberculosis sanitarium;

By Mrs. Ott, providing that commissioners of township parks shall not be township officers and shall serve without compensation;

By Gordon, permitting county prosecutor to enjoin misapplication of township funds and empowering tax payers to bring action in case the prosecutor fails to do so;

By Chester, authorizing additional supervision of state parks by the state health department;

By Although, vacating a portion of the Miami and Erie canal within the city of Troy, Miami County, and providing for its sale or lease to the city.

An investigation of the number of ex-soldiers who are in schools and universities receiving state aid and not receiving the benefits of the Jones law, which provides free tuition for ex-service men and women, is authorized in a joint resolution adopted by the house.

The book shows that up until Friday morning not a marriage license had been issued in Probate Court since March 3, which is almost two weeks that the little cuss has been loafing on the job.

Court officials thought this story might prove an advertisement to create a rush of Saturday business but they refused to offer a bargain rate for licenses in order to speed up business.

Indications are March will be a low month in point of licenses this year.

HIGH WINDS CAUSE NO DAMAGE HERE

Although Xenia felt the effects of a wind storm that struck the Middle-West Thursday night and Friday morning no serious damage was reported here.

Destruction and damage were left in the wake of the storm that swept over Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and other states but Xenia came out fortunately.

The high wind was noticed here from early in the evening. Telephone men say their damage was slight and that the storm was not as severe as that of last week when considerable damage was done to lines.

THE NOTES THAT RISE ABOVE THE DISCORDS OF INDIFFERENCE.

The Godly life is a song that lives. Our hymn books are like sieves, retaining the choicest hymns. Only those songs live which have been born from above.

Fannie Crosby's life was a song for more than eighty years. More than eight thousand products of her pen are left us. Her sightless eyes did not hinder her spiritual vision. As Mr. Sherwin wrote of her to Frances Ridley Havergal in England, "She is a blind lady whose heart can see splendidly in the sunshine of God's love." Miss Crosby's beautiful hymn, "Hold Thou My Hand," was written after a time of darkness and trouble. This hymn was a great comfort to Charles Spurgeon in his last days. "Speed Away, Speed Away. On Your Mission of Light," was written after hearing the beautiful Indian melody which Mr. Sankey arranged for her words. "I wrote it," said Miss Crosby, "hoping that it might arouse some one to go as a missionary across the sea." "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," was written April 30, 1868.

The late Dr. John Hall was called to see a dying girl. The anxious father met him at the door. "What is the trouble?" asked Dr. Hall. "Has the little girl gone home?" "No," replied the father, "but she has asked me to sing, 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus,' " "Oh!" said Dr. Hall, "I'll go up and sing it for her." When he reached the last two lines of the hymn, "Wait 'till I see the morning break, On the golden shore," the spirit of the child passed on to that land where all shall sing the melodies of Zion.

Some people can pass through the Valley of Baca, and make it a well. The self-sacrificing life of Grace Darling, who in the fourth watch of the night, heard the cry of distress from a wrecked vessel half a mile away, and through fog and boisterous sea, rowed to seeming certain death, and saved all nine survivors of the doomed vessel, is a song never to be forgotten. No lure of gold could draw her from her sea-girt rock. The notes of such a life song rise high above the discord of selfishness and indifference to the world's despairing cry.

IRISH DEFYING THE LAW, ONLY A HABIT OF CENTURIES.

Although the present Free State Government is unpopular, it is difficult to see how any Government ushered in amid the discords which prevailed when the Cosgrave Administration assumed power six months ago could have made much more progress toward order. Defiance of law has been a creed for so long in Ireland that the country necessarily will not change its ways overnight. It simply has not been a national habit hereabouts to obey the law which for centuries in Ireland was unknown to the rank and file of the populace except as symbol of foreign tyranny, always enforced by British bayonets. Of the spirit of self-government or of assent to the Government of the day there was no such thing. The emblem of Government was ever the mailed fist of the foreigner, with the result that defiance was the rule and obedience decidedly the exception.

This, as every one knows now—Irishmen included—was not a very good background from which to step into the privileges and responsibilities of self-government. The Cosgrave Government from the start has been one of firmness—too much rigor, perhaps—to meet with approval by a populace unused to law observance. President Cosgrave has repeatedly reiterated that there could be no dealing with the irregulars except upon the basis that complete executive control must remain in the hands of Ministers responsible to the elected representatives of the nation—in other words, unconditional surrender.

It should not be supposed, however, that unpopularity of the Cosgrave Government means any sympathetic trend toward the Irregulars. The contrary is the case. Many outrages taken as proof of the strength of Irregulars are really the work of outlaws, who care not a rap for either Irregulars or the Free State. They simply see a good chance for a little loot and murder and fall in with the spirit of the times.

AIRWAYS.

An announcement of the National Aeronautic Association heralds a striking development in the near future of commercial airways under such auspices as those which have already developed winter routes between Key West and Havana, Miami and Nassau, and summer routes connecting other points. The effort, if the plans formulated are carried out, will develop a network of air routes paralleling those of the inland waterways and the seaboard canals, and will still leave abundant commercial employment for the water-borne carriers.

We are at present lagging far to the rearward of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan in their manifest concern for the increase of facilities of aerial transportation. The advisory board of thirty-five which has been created will apply to the problem some of the best brains available in America. Their deliberation will be useful not only for some unpredictable military emergency, but for the various uses of peace time. The Nation that created the Panama Canal after four centuries of failure should not concede priority to other lands in the establishment and maintenance of transportation through the air.

There are approximately 3,000,000 railroad cars of all varieties in use on the truck lines of this country.

The mine and smelter output of zinc each increased approximately 70 per cent during 1922 over the record of 1921.

Postal money orders amounting to $145,313,841 were issued and orders amounting to $215,901,094 were cashed in New York State during 1922.

SOVIET LEADER IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Moscow, March 16.—The condition of Nicholai Lenin, who is suffering partial paralysis, is unchanged today. Nurses and physicians are in constant attendance.

The council of commissars are said to have made full precautions for the future administration of the soviet republic in event of death or in case Lenin is never again able to conduct the affairs of state. It is likely that, for a time, administrative affairs will be in the hands of a committee.

GERMANY SEEKS FREEDOM, WANTS TROOPS TO GO

GOVERNOR SCORES PRODUCERS OF ROAD BUILDING MATERIAL

Berlin, March 16.—Germany will not enter into any negotiations that have not, as a preliminary condition, an agreement for withdrawal without reservations of the French troops from the Ruhr.

That is the main point in a circular notice sent by the German foreign office to all its embassies and legations, including Washington.

The circular touches on five points discussed by Premier Poincaré at the Brussels conference Monday, but lays chief emphasis on the last point. Regarding the proposal for a gradual withdrawal from the Ruhr corresponding to the German payments, the German missions are advised that the subject is wholly impossible of discussion by the German government.

It is declared that the Ruhr was invaded in violation of the Versailles treaty and of international law. Negotiations are possible only with the preliminary understanding that there be a complete withdrawal of the invading forces, because, so long as there is a regime of "might, force and illegality," a regime of legality conforming to treaty obligations is impossible.

Moreover, the circular states, Germany can not re-enter upon reparations payments or consider a new plan unless it has freedom of movement and full control over its economic and financial interests. Further, it is stated, it is utterly out of the question that any foreign consortium would loan Germany the necessary money for reparations, or that Germany could furnish the guarantees that would be demanded if she is restrained in the exploitation of her economic interests or continually threatened with new measures of force.

The circular ends by saying: "Germany will not fail to furnish France with practical guarantees against attack when Poincaré renounces his policy of might and force as a preliminary to an amicable understanding."

AMERICAN WOMAN NATURALIZED JAP

Honolulu, March 14.—Mitsuyo Hoshida, missionary and the first and only known American woman to become a naturalized subject of the Japanese Empire, is in Honolulu for a three months' rest in order to recover from an illness with which she was stricken after many years of missionary service in Japan.

What her real name is she will not divulge, and she says nothing of her early life, except to reveal that she was born in a little Wisconsin town some 50 years ago. She is a gentle cultured woman, with fine, intelligent eyes, and rapidly graying hair. Thirty years ago Miss Hoshida, as she is now known, went to Japan as a missionary and since then has lived at the Japanese naval base at Yokosuka, where she has worked among Japanese sailors. She speaks Japanese fluently and is now studying the written language.

When the vessel on which she arrived here docked Miss Hoshida had to wait her turn with the other aliens to take the regular immigration examination. She likewise had to pay the alien head tax of $8.

DECLARES RUSSIA WILL NOT BECOME GERMANY'S ALLY

London, March 16.—There is no possible chance of Russia joining Germany on the Ruhr issue or helping Germany to drive the French out of the Ruhr valley, according to opinion expressed today by Lieutenant Commander J. M. Kenworthy, M. P. who has just returned from a seven weeks tour of Russia.

"Russia knows Germany is the only friend she has, but she is not going to fight Germany's battles for her," Kenworthy told International News Service.

"Russians regard the Ruhr as a capitalistic venture. They are not going to pull chestnuts from the fire for any group of capitalists."

The records of the highway department will show that during the year 1922, the same thing happened. The department purchased 2,624,000 gallons of coal tar at a price of approximately 10.7 cents per gallon. During the same period it purchased 990,000 gallons of asphalt at an average of only six and one half cents per gallon.

Here is a difference of 4.2 cent a gallon on two commodities of substantially the same merit with the asphalt possibly slightly superior to tar. Why these increased purchases of tar in the face and simultaneously with these extraordinary boosts in price? Does it not seem that there was hidden behind these transactions a powerful strangle hold on the part of tar interests.

Another road building material which has been popular with our state highway department recently is bitulithic, applied by a patent process. The owners of this patent have favored contractors who are given inside prices lower than the prices quoted openly to other contractors, so that only a few contractors can successfully bid on projects for which bitulithic is specified. Usually there is only one bitulithic bidder for any given contract. Patented pavements make possible the crowding out of bidders to the advantage of the particular favored bidder chosen by the company to bid their products. That this method has been practiced in our State Highway Department to guarantee particular projects to certain favored contractors should be apparent.

"As to other highway building materials, there is an uncanny, almost dead uniformity in the prices of paving brick concerns in Ohio A similar uniformity in cement prices and likewise in crushed stone. A few years ago these prices varied. Does not the present uniformity of prices suggest collusion, combination, conspiracy or strangle hold?"

VILLA WRECKED FOR LANDRU SOUVENIRS

Paris, March 16.—Souvenir hunters reaped great harvest at the Gamblis villa, formerly occupied by Bluebeard Landru, who was guillotined to atone for the murder of several wives and a boy.

The owner of the villa, M. Tric, has sued the ministry of Justice for 45,000 francs, claiming that amount of damage was done by persons who roamed through the villa at will after Landru's execution and took away with them even the lead piping and brass faucets. Nothing but the bare walls remain, according to Tric, who is a cobbler at Melun.

The ministry of Justice offered to pay Tric 5,000 francs, but the settlement was refused and Tric has appealed the case.

FIRPO ADDED TO CARD.

New York, March 16.—Luis Angelo Firpo, conqueror of Bill Brennan, will fight in the same ring the same afternoon that Floyd Johnson meets Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion of the world. In other words, Firpo has been added to the "card."

Tex Rickard, who is promoting and directing the Johnson-Willard match for the mayor's committee of women, which will get most of the receipts for the New York milk fund, made this announcement here. Johnson and Willard fight on the afternoon of May 12 at the Yankees' new field—15 rounds or less. Just before this event begins Luis Angelo Firpo goes on to battle an opponent not yet selected.

It has been predicted that the Johnson-Willard "gate" would go anywhere from $250,000 to $500,000. With Firpo added against a stout trial horse, Rickard is confident the show will go beyond the wildest conjectures.

HERRICK AGAINST GAS TAX.

Columbus, March 16.—State Highway Director Herrick announced himself in opposition to the Brown 2-cent a gallon gasoline tax bill, pending in the house. "I am in favor of the principle of a gasoline tax, but I am absolutely opposed to this bill," Herrick declared. "There is to be a gasoline tax, the revenue from it should be used for the sole purpose of reconstructing roads in order to cut down the present tremendous maintenance charges," said Herrick.

MISSIONARY SPEAKS AT EVANGELISTIC MEETING THURSDAY

Miss Ethel M. Canary, a missionary now enroute to the South American continent, to work among the lepers, was introduced to the Thursday night audience of the Triangle service, at the First Reformed Church, by the Rev. J. S. Flacks, Jew evangelist.

Miss Canary spoke with intense interest and delight of her call, and the prospect in carrying the gospel to the unfortunate in the colony. She will appear at the Sunday service.

The Rev. Mr. Flacks announced as the basis of his sermon, Psalm 32. He said in part: "In this Psalm the way of salvation is made known, as also the way to live it after that you have received it." It is well "he continued "with the man whose iniquity is forgiven, and whose sin is covered. However no man is saved by culture or education or refinement or wealth."

These pertain to salvation, but no man can be saved by his good deeds. It is only well with any man, when the sin question has been settled with God through Jesus Christ. Nothing can cover the sin, beyond the power of God to detect it, says the blood of Jesus Christ. When the individual is thus covered with blood, he can truly say it is well."

Following the sermon, a brief after-service was conducted by the Rev. E. Stewart. The Woman's Bible class conducted by Mrs. Stewart, in the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Stewart, accompanied by friends, visited the O. S. and S. O. Home, and held services in the chapel at the institution. The Rev. Mr. Stewart, preached an interesting sermon on "The Heart." The Rev. Mr. Flacks, led in prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Flacks will preach at the First Reformed Church, Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. and Mrs. Stewart will leave after the service for their home in Rochester.

HOLADAY ASKS HIS TOWN PUT ON MAP

Danville, Ill., March 16.—When William P. Holaday, successor in congress to "Uncle Joe" Cannon, takes his seat at Washington he will have one "assignment" which the folks back home will insist that he neglect. That assignment is "Put Georgetown on the map."

For some unknown reason Georgetown, Illinois, has been neglected by the makers of maps of the country and cannot be found. When towns only half its size are always found, and Georgetown goes neglected—to all appearances unknown and unheard of—the residents of that town are far from pleased. And they have placed upon the shoulders of representative Holaday the responsibility of getting Georgetown on the map.

The discovery was made when one proud resident of Georgetown—Holaday's "home town"—was discussing the new Congressman at a Chicago club.

"He's from my home town," the booster declared.

"And where's Georgetown?" he was asked.

A map was produced but nowhere could Georgetown be found.

Government map makers explained there "wasn't room enough for Georgetown, when the matter was brought to their attention.

Holaday is said to have agreed with his fellow townsmen that George town certainly is entitled to at least a small dot on the map and he's out to get it.

XENIANS MAKE GOOD AT WASHINGTON HIGH
EAST HIGH READY FOR FINAL GAME WITH PARIS, KY., FIVE
BIG MONEY READY ON COLUMBUS TRACKS

EAST HIGH IN LAST GAME By Wones

Fans will have their last chance to see the East High basketball team in action when it stacks up against the fast Paris High quintet of Kentucky at the East High gym, Friday night. This will be the final game of the season for Coach Harris' warriors.

The Paris High team is a nifty bunch of pill tossers and have been going good all season. In Johnson at center the Paris gang has a very fine player. Although he is not such a wonderful jumper he can hold his own with the best of them. He is good both on long and short shots and will bear watching by the East High bunch. He is a good passer and dribbler and is also excellent on breaking up plays. The Paris bunch has a good set of guards in Richardson and Simpson who are both good on the defensive end of the game, both of these lads are fast and accurate passers as well as being fine floor men. The rest of the team is evenly balanced.

With the above performers in the Paris High lineup the East High pill tossers will have a busy time of it, but the Market Street bunch has been preparing for the game and Coach Harris has been working his boys harder than ever in order to close the season with a victory over the visitors. A win over the Kentucky bunch would close one of the most successful basketball seasons ever had at that school.

When the locals were on their tour they tangled with the Paris basketballers and were defeated by a 17 to 13 score. But the East High athletes have their chance to even things up with the visitors and this they are counting on doing. East High will present its usual lineup. L. Rachford will referee. There will be two good preliminaries. The first to start at 7 p.m.

DAYTON TEAM TO PLAY HERE

The Dayton Hi Y basketball team will engage the sturdy Paris High team of Kentucky in a game at the East High gym on Saturday night.

The game promises to be a thriller as both teams are about evenly matched. The East High team defeated the Dayton Hi Y team at Dayton this year and also gave them a drubbing at the East gym. There will be a preliminary which will get underway at 7:30. A competent official will be in charge.

Xenians Star at Washington.

Bob "Butch" Gegner and Russell "Squeek" Vannorsdall, both Central High court stars last year who played with Washington C. H., this season lead all other Washington players in scoring points while Gegner is believed to have set up a scoring record that has never been excelled in the Fayette County metropolis.

Washington won eight of the 12 regularly scheduled games running up 298 points to 232 scored by opponents, and being defeated by South High of Columbus 14 to 10 in the first round of the finals of the state basketball tournament at Columbus.

During the season Gegner contributed 199 of the 298 points scored by his team, an average of 16.6 points per game.

His scoring included 64 field goals and 71 from the foul mark. Vannorsdall was next highest man in the scoring 43 points compiled from 19 field goals and five foul goals. The nearest competition to these lads was Baker, who registered 20 points.

ROBIN HOODS PLAY FIRST GAME

The Robin Hoods baseball nine and the third grade team of Central school will open the diamond season Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Both teams have been practicing hard for the event. Robin Hoods will lineup as follows: Ball c, Lorrimer p, Baker 1b, King 2b, Spahr 3b, Price ss, C. Adair lf, R. Adair rf, Baldner cf. The

ROMAN SOCIETY APATHETIC OVER JOLANDA TROTH

Rome, March 16.—Mixed sentiments over the engagement of Princess Jolanda and Count Calvi are swaying Italy.

The middle classes are highly enthusiastic over the match because of its romantic character which on the other hand, is one of the chief objections of other, and higher, social strata.

Those who are included in the latter category whisper that while Count Calvi is undoubtedly of good family the Princess might have found a husband among some of the several princes of the Italian royal family who have been considered more suitable by the peerage. They whisper that the count really is not considered a scion of the "chosen aristocracy."

The fact is that the princess's engagement is purely a love affair that has surprised not only society but the court as well, including the sovereigns. It is openly said that the dowager Queen Margherita and the Duchess of Aosta are very much annoyed both at the choice of Jolanda and the fact that the king's consent was given without their being consulted. So it has been noticed that both of them did not put in appearance at the Quirinal reception at which the engagement was officially announced.

Also it was noted that no one of the family of the bridegroom was with him on this occasion. This seems to confirm the rumors that the king has given his consent to the marriage just to please his daughter, but it is not a willing concession, and it has been qualified by several drastic conditions. The first is that he accepts the bridegroom but draws the line at his family; the second is that once married Jolanda is not to live in Rome; third, no special title is to be bestowed on the husband; fourth, the dowry to be moderate in view of the simplicity of the marriage and the modest situation of the husband's family. (There is talk of the king making a gift to his daughter of ten million lire.)

Princess Jolanda has bravely accepted all conditions. As soon as she is married she is going to live in Pienrolo, a small provincial town, where her husband will continue to act as one of the riding masters at the famous cavalry school. Already several villas have been inspected for

MRS. A. C. MESSENGER ELECTED TO OFFICE OF D. A. R. IN STATE

Mrs. Lowell F. Hobart, Cincinnati, was selected State Regent of the Ohio Daughters of the American Revolution, succeeding Mrs. William Magee Wilson, of this city, at the morning session of the twenty-fourth annual conference held by the State organization, at the Hotel Gibson, Cincinnati, Thursday.

Mrs. A. C. Messenger, of this city, ex-regent of the Catherine Greene Chapter of the D. A. R., this city, and chairman of the Caroline Scott Harrison Memorial Association of the D. A. R., was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the State organization, during the session.

Other new officers are: Vice Regent of Ohio, Mrs. Herbert Backus, Columbus; Treasurer, Mrs. C. M. Kearns, Hillsboro; Historian, Mrs. Paul E. Nolen, Springfield; Registrar, Mrs. D. J. Sinclair, Steubenville; Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Cincinnati, was selected secretary. Other members of the Board of Directors, besides Mrs. Messenger, include, Mrs. Charles Shields, Toledo; Mrs. John Lippman, Cincinnati; Mrs. C. Franz, of Akron, and Mrs. Eugene Kennedy, of Dayton.

Honorary officers of the organization were named as follows, Mrs. A. Howard Hinkle, Cincinnati, Honorary State Regent; Mrs. Kent Hamilton, Toledo, Honorary State Regent; and Mrs. John T. Maack, Sandusky, Honorary State Vice Regent.

The conference went on record unanimously as endorsing Mrs. E. L. Harris, Cleveland, for the position of National librarian, of the Daughters of the American Revolution at Washington. Eighty chapters were represented at the State Conference. Thursday afternoon the reports of the Chapter Presidents were received.

Miss Florence E. Allen, of Cleveland, Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, addressed the delegates, Thursday night on "The Supreme Challenge." "The supreme challenge of the hour is that governments should deal justly in all things," she said. "Governments of today, for the most part, are not just in a good many things. For instance they are not just when it comes to the matter of war. They do not do all in their power to prevent the coming of war. They would stop war if they knew it was the wish of the people that war cease."

"Long ago killing between individuals was made a crime. How horrible it is to think that in this day and age and in our vaunted Christian civilization wholesale killing is still permitted to go on unmolested by the stern hand of law. The laws that govern war are ridiculous."

Mrs. Hobart, the new State Regent, has been connected with the D. A. R. and the Cincinnati chapter, since 1890. She was elected Vice Regent of the Cincinnati chapter in 1909 and was chosen Regent in 1912. She was again chosen for that place in 1915. For eight years, Mrs. Hobart has been chairman of the Committee on the Children of the Republic. She was made Vice Regent, last November, filling the unexpired term of Mrs. James Allen, of Kent Ohio, who died. Her term as State Regent is for three years. Mrs. Wilson, past State Regent, is a possible candidate for the vice-director-generalship of the National D. A. R.

CELEBRATE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

NEW POLICEMAN IS OVER SIX FEET-ON DUTY ON THURSDAY

With the resignation of Patrolman Fred Jones effective Thursday evening, Chief of Police M. E. Graham announced a department shift to take care of the emergency by transferring Patrolman Ancil Stephens from night to day duty in Jones' place and putting John L. Stephens, 23, on probationary work at night.

John L. Stephens came here a year ago from Manchester, Ohio and he presented Chief Graham with letters of recommendation from prominent citizens and police officials of that city. His Army discharge papers show that he was a member of the Military Police had had special police training in the Army, and at the time of his discharge ranked as a Police Inspector. The embryo policeman is six feet, three inches tall.

Because of the present emergency John L. Stephens was started on the streets Thursday night under the tutelage of Patrolman Charles Simms, the veteran, who has "broken in" more than a score of new policemen and Patrolman Harry Cramer.

The civil service commission has announced Thursday March 22 at 7:00 o'clock in the evening for the police examination but the new patrolman will be used on trial until he can take the examination.

Patrolman Jones turned in his badge, club and cap, shield Thursday night for the last time. With David Mangan, former police Lieutenant he has purchased the Cloverleaf Delicatessen, East Main Street, and will take charge of that establishment Monday.

MILLION DOLLAR DOLLS PLAY HERE

A special engagement of the "Million Dollar Dolls," one of the liveliest and kickiest musical comedy offerings on the road this season, will be played at City Hall Theater Saturday through the arrangements made by the Standard Amusement Company.

An off-date on the company's tour of this section enabled the local company to book the company in here for the special engagement, which is being widely heralded.

Sidney Hamilton, who has previously delighted Xenia audiences with his musical nonsense and tomfoolery, is leading comedian with the "Million Dollar Doll Company."

Twenty-five people are carried in the cast, including a troupe of carefully selected girls, who have been successfully getting away with their widespread exploitation as "million dollar dolls."

GRACE SENDS NOTE TO DICK BY CHINA BOY

CHAPTER 34

Ann was trembling, but no sign of perturbation appeared in her quiet voice as she answered Dick's "why?"

"I couldn't wait upon her any longer," she replied.

"Wait upon her? Why she spent all her time taking care of me, helping you."

He looked annoyed, puzzled.

"She never helped me at all, Dick. I had her meals to prepare, and until I refused to do it, her bed to make, her room to tidy, even her clothes to pick up."

I haven't strength to do anything unnecessary."

"But how did she come to decide to go without bidding me goodbye?"

"Ned came for her. I telephoned to him to that is all there is to it, Dick dear."

Now I must go out and see that the men are doing as they should. You will be surprised when you see how fast the picking has progressed."

Rising, Ann left the room, and also left a very much disturbed man in the room.

Was he going to be angry? Make it hard and unpleasant for her when she had worked so faithfully, endured so much? When she went in to him again an hour later, carrying an immense orange in her hand, he said:

"I hope you were pleasant to Grace, Ann. She's been a brick. I don't know how I should have stood this confinement if she hadn't been here to amuse me."

"I was not unpleasant, Dick. I simply told her I could entertain her no longer. Isn't this a beauty?" she laid the orange on the bed.

"She'll be over as soon as she gets rested," Dick said, absent-mindedly looking at the orange.

"I expect she was glad to go. She must be tired playing nurse to a cranky fellow who was all the time kicking because he couldn't get out. But somehow I can't quite understand her going without saying goodbye."

He looked keenly at Ann.

Ann had not mentioned she whiskey, neither did he. But she knew that sometime they would have to talk of it; she felt that he must know it had something to do with what had happened.

"You were asleep," evasively Ann replied.

Two days passed and there had been no sign from Grace, no word. Dick's crutches, ordered by the doctor, had arrived and he would soon be learning to use them, perhaps that week.

He was elated, fretted to get up and try them, but Ann was insistent that he obey the doctor's orders.

She had been very busy, and Dick, noting her tired eyes, her worn out look, and laying it all to the work, had insisted that little Jack should be brought into the bedroom, his crib near him when the little fellow was asleep or that he be on the bed beside him when awake.

"He never wanted him when she was here," Ann said with bitterness.

"She made him forget both of us."

The weather was gloriously balmy and as it usual in the country doors were open.

Ann had been in the back of the house, but came around the side just in time to see a China boy leave the front porch.

"What do you want?" she asked.

"I'm lant nothing, me bring letter, boss."

Ann said nothing more to the boy.

It was not her way to question servants, either her own or those of others.

He look like a boy Bessie once had employed, but the Chinese look so much alike she couldn't be sure.

Neither did she question Dick. She had a strong suspicion the letter was from Grace.

Dick was usually confidential with her about his affairs, always telling her to read his letters, frequently asking her to answer them, yet he made no mention of the one left by the Chinese boy.

She knew if it was from Grace, that her version of her dismissal had reached Dick.

What would she say? How try to make Dick feel she had been abused, ill-treated? And would Dick accept what she said, instead of believing what she, his wife, had told him? Had she been foolish to send Grace away and so give him a chance to take her part against his wife?

All these questions she asked herself over and over, as she went about her work either in the house, or in her frequent trips to the orchard to see how men were getting on.

Ned and Bessie had been over, but neither had asked questions.

Ned because he probably had heard Grace's version, an naturally he had sided with his cousin, Bessie, because she disliked to bring up a subject she knew disagreeable before Dick and Ned.

But one day when Hugh Norton called, and inquired for Grace, Ann said:

"I couldn't entertain her any longer, Hugh."

"I am glad you finally realized that,

Ann. She is very selfish, and I know made you more work. You look terribly tired. You are doing too much, I wish there was some way I could help you."

"You do help me, Hugh—how much you cannot imagine." Then more brightly, "Dick will soon be around now, and while he can't do anything much himself for some time, he can look after the men, attend to harvesting the rest of the crop."

PRISON FULL SO WOMAN RETURNED

Federal officials in Dayton are worrying over disposition of Ida Eidenmiller, 58, of Troy, who was convicted in federal court last week of sending obscene letter and post cards through the mail.

U. S. Marshal Tom Donovan returned to Dayton with Mrs. Eidenmiller from the woman's prison at Shakopee, Minn., Wednesday night, because the prison was full. The woman had been sentenced there for three years after she had been originally sentenced to the woman's prison at Jefferson Mo., and the court found the government's contract with that prison had expired.

The woman is confined in the Montgomery County jail awaiting action of the officials in finding a prison for her.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

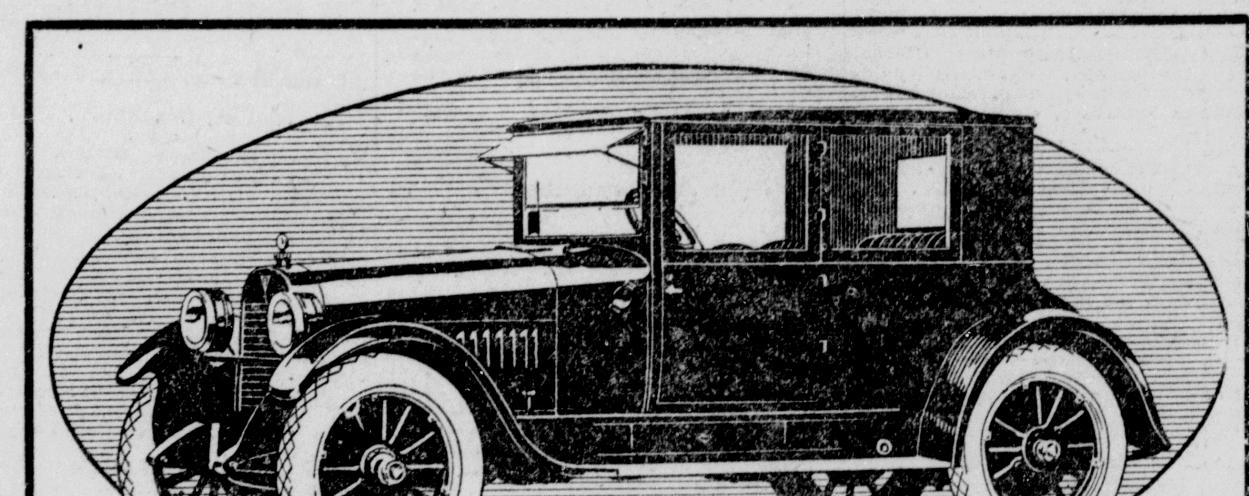

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water brash or neusea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive acids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of ad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with Lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of sufferers with excellent results.

LODGE CELEBRATES 16TH ANNIVERSARY

An interesting program and a social time, was enjoyed by the members of the Lodge of Xenia Council, No. 140, Daughters of America, in celebration of the 16th anniversary of the order, at the lodge hall, Thursday night.

The arrangements and success of the evening, were in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. W. C. Horner, chairman, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. Elmer Shoemaker, Mrs. Henry Buckles, and Mrs. Edward Hubbard. Members of the Lodge, their families and friends numbering about 160 people, attended the affair.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the entire audience, a recitation, by Ida Haines, and a dialogue "The Mother and the Six Fairies," in which the characters were taken by Esther Ford, the mother, Mildred Horner, Miriam and Marie Kafory, Ellen Haines, Dorothy McCoy, and Eleanor Moore.

An interesting paper on different members of the order, was read by Mrs. Alberta Ford, "Our Flag" was recited by Marjorie Shoemaker, followed by a song, by Miss Helen Ford, and an specialty, by Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell Turner. Mrs. Mattie Humston, of Springfield a member of the local lodge, gave a clever monologue. A beautiful tableau, depicting the principles of the order, and the efforts of the lodge to place the Bible in the schools, was presented, under the direction of Mrs. Horner. The characters of the tableau were Goddess of Liberty, Mrs. Raymond McCoy; Uncle Sam, Frank Sheets, and seven school children, the same characters that appeared in "The Mother and the Six Fairies." The Bible was presented to the schools by little Miss Marjorie Shoemaker.

The program was interspersed by music from the orchestra, composed of Miss Imogene Mullen, at the piano, Donald Currie, saxophone, and William Horner drums, which furnished music for dancing, which was enjoyed after the program.

HEALTH TALK GIVEN BEFORE HOME CLUB

Mrs. M. R. Sodgrass, public health nurse, gave an interesting and instructive address on "Child Welfare" before the members of the Home Club at the home of Mrs. Albert Bickett, on the Jamestown pike, Wednesday afternoon. Thirteen members and three visitors enjoyed the meeting.

Mrs. Sodgrass spoke of the work being done by different organizations and in the schools, by examination of children, to discover abnormal conditions, and to point out means to correct it where possible. Very common handicaps of children are adenoids and diseased tonsils, which affect them mentally and physically according to Mrs. Sodgrass, resulting in low mentality and deformities of nose and mouth. These in later years may result in more serious diseases as tuberculosis and goitre, she said.

At the close of her talk, many questions were asked by those present, which were answered by Mrs. Sodgrass. A rising vote of thanks was extended her.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bickett.

CUPID FAILS TO MAKE SHOWING DURING MONTH

What has become of Cupid, the little love beggar, who trots around in his all-in-alls and shoots a line of goot fastened to a little trick arrow?

Attorneys of Probate Court are asking themselves this question, because Hymen's aid must be hiding out some place during the cold spell according to the Marriage Record book.

The book shows that up until Friday morning not a marriage license had been issued in Probate Court since March 3, which is almost two weeks that the little cuss has been loafing on the job.

Court officials thought this story might prove an advertisement to create a rush of Saturday business but they refused to offer a bargain rate for licenses in order to speed up business.

Indications are March will be a low month in point of licenses this year.

SNOW PILED HIGH ON PRAIRIE LAND OF WEST ON FRIDAY

Chicago, March 16.—Trains in Missouri were running behind schedule, according to despatches from Kansas City, on account of the severe storm of Thursday. Telegraph and telephone service was reported to be in bad shape.

In some midwest cities, street car service was abandoned. This was true at Ford Dodge, Iowa, and Omaha, Neb., where services was resumed on a limited scale this morning. It was three above zero at Lincoln, Neb. The Omaha Weather Bureau reported the snow-fall the heaviest ever recorded, more than 12 inches falling.

Prairies were piled high with snows in drifts. Transcontinental trains, running over northern routes were hours late.

Dayton, March 16.—A furious wind storm barely missed Dayton early this morning striking Franklin, Beavertown, Centerville and other sections. The gale lasted half an hour leveling fences and trees and doing other damage.

TWO CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Rhodert, druggist, was killed.

By Mrs. Ott, providing that commissioners of township parks shall not be township officers and shall serve without compensation;

By Gordon, permitting county prosecutor to enjoin misapplication of township funds and empowering tax payers to bring action in case the prosecutor fails to do so;

By Chester, authorizing additional supervision of state parks by the state health department;

By Albaugh, vacating a portion of the Miami and Erie canal within the city of Troy, Miami County, and providing for its sale or lease to the city.

GERMANY SEEKS FREEDOM, WANTS TROOPS TO GO

GOVERNOR SCORES PRODUCERS OF ROAD BUILDING MATERIAL

Berlin, March 16.—Germany will not enter into any negotiations that have not, as a preliminary condition, an agreement for withdrawal without reservations of the French troops from the Ruhr.

That is the main point in a circular notice sent by the German foreign office to all its embassies and legations, including Washington.

The circular touches on five points discussed by Premier Poincare at the Brussels conference Monday, but lays chief emphasis on the last point. Regarding the proposal for a gradual withdrawal from the Ruhr corresponding to the German payments, the German missions are advised that the subject is wholly impossible of discussion by the German government.

It is declared that the Ruhr was invaded in violation of the Versailles treaty and of international law. Negotiations are possible only with the preliminary understanding that there be a complete withdrawal of the invading forces, because, so long as there is a regime of "might, force and illegality," a regime of legality conforming to treaty obligations is impossible.

Moreover, the circular states, Germany can not re-enter upon reparations payments or consider a new plan unless it has freedom of movement and full control over its economic and financial interests. Further, it is stated, it is utterly out of the question that any foreign consortium would loan Germany the necessary money for reparations, or that Germany could furnish the guarantees that would be demanded if she is restrained in the exploitation of her economic interests or continually threatened with new measures of force.

The circular ends by saying: "Germany will not fail to furnish France with practical guarantees against attack when Poincare renounces his policy of might and force as a preliminary to an amicable understanding."

AMERICAN WOMAN NATURALIZED JAP

Honolulu, March 14.—Mitsuyo Hoshida, missionary and the first and only known American woman to become a naturalized subject of the Japanese Empire, is in Honolulu for a three months' rest in order to recover from an illness with which she was stricken after many years of missionary service in Japan.

What her real name is she will not divulge, and she says nothing of her early life, except to reveal that she was born in a little Wisconsin town some 50 years ago. She is a gentle cultured woman, with fine, intelligent eyes, and rapidly graying hair. Thirty years ago Miss Hoshida, as she is now known, went to Japan as a missionary and since then has lived at the Japanese naval base at Yokosuka, where she has worked among Japanese sailors. She speaks Japanese fluently and is now studying the written language.

When the vessel on which she arrived here docked Miss Hoshida had to wait her turn with the other aliens to take the regular immigration examination. She likewise had to pay the alien head tax of $8.

actions a powerful strangle hold on the part of tar interests.

"Another road building material which has been popular with our state highway department recently is bitulithic, applied by a patent process. The owners of this patent have favored contractors who are given inside prices lower than the prices quoted openly to other contractors, so that only a few contractors can successfully bid on projects for which bitulithic is specified. Usually there is only one bitulithic bidder for any given contract. Patented pavements make possible the crowding out of bidders to the advantage of the particular favored bidder chosen by the company to bid their products. That this method has been practiced in our State Highway Department to guarantee particular projects to certain favored contractors should be apparent."

"As to other highway building materials, there is an uncanny, almost deadly uniformity in the prices of paving brick from all the various brick concerns in Ohio. A similar uniformity in cement prices and likewise in crushed stone. A few years ago these prices varied. Does not the present uniformity of prices suggest collusion, combination, conspiracy or strangle hold?"

DECLARER RUSSIA WILL NOT BECOME GERMANY'S ALLY

London, March 16.—There is no possible chance of Russia joining Germany on the Ruhr issue or helping Germany to drive the French out of the Ruhr valley, according to opinion expressed today by Lieutenant Commander J. M. Kenworthy, M. P. who has just returned from a seven weeks tour of Russia.

"Russia knows Germany is the only friend she has, but she is not going to fight Germany's battles for her," Kenworthy told International News Service.

"Russians regard the Ruhr as a capitalistic venture. They are not going to pull chestnuts from the fire for any group of capitalists."

"Russia is not going to make war against anybody. She wants peace and is bending all her energies toward re-establishing commercial and industrial prosperity, rather than building up a military machine."

France is flirting with Russia in trying to form an European bloc against England, but Russia is just as unwilling to ally herself with militaristic France as with Germany's capitalists.

"It is time for the United States and England to recognize the fact that the present Russian government is there to stay. Both countries should give up their silly stubbornness with Russia. There is no likelihood of any lasting Russo-Turkish alliance."

VILLA WRECKED FOR LANDRU SOUVENIRS

Paris, March 16.—Souvenir hunters reaped a great harvest at the Gamblis villa, formerly occupied by Bluebeard Landru, who was guillotined to atoms for the murder of several wives and a boy.

The owner of the villa, M. Trie, has sued the ministry of Justice for 45,000 francs, claiming that amount of damage was done by persons who roamed through the villa at will after Landru's execution and took away with them even the lead piping and brass faucets. Nothing but the bare walls remain, according to Trie, who is a cobbler at Melun.

The ministry of Justice offered to pay Trie 5,000 francs, but the settlement was refused and Trie has appealed the case.

FIRPO ADDED TO CARD.

New York, March 16.—Luis Angelo Firpo, conqueror of Bill Brennan, will fight in the same ring the same afternoon that Floyd Johnson meets Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion of the world. In other words, Firpo has been added to the "card."

Tex Rickard, who is promoting and directing the Johnson-Willard match for the mayor's committee of women, which will get most of the receipts for the New York milk fund, made this announcement here. Johnson and Willard fight on the afternoon of May 12 at the Yankees' new field—15 rounds or less. Just before this event begins Luis Angelo Firpo goes on to battle an opponent not yet selected.

It has been predicted that the Johnson-Willard "gate" would go anywhere from $250,000 to $500,000. With Firpo added against a stout trial horse, Rickard is confident the show will go beyond the wildest conjectures.

XENIANS MAKE GOOD AT WASHINGTON HIGH
EAST HIGH READY FOR FINAL GAME WITH PARIS, KY., FIVE
BIG MONEY READY ON COLUMBUS TRACKS

EAST HIGH IN LAST GAME By Wones

Fans will have their last chance to see the East High basketball team in action when it stacks up against the fast Paris High quintet of Kentucky at the East High gym Friday night. This will be the final game of the season for Coach Harris' warriors. The Paris High team is a nifty bunch of pill tossers and have been going good all season. In Johnson at center the Paris game has a very fine player. Although he is not such a wonderful jumper he can hold his own with the best of them. He is good both on long and short shots and will bear watching by the East High bunch. He is a good passer and dribbler and is also excellent on breaking up plays. The Paris bunch has a good set of guards in Richardson and Simpson; they are both good on the defensive end of the game, both of these lads are fast and accurate passers as well as being fine floor men. The rest of the team is evenly balanced.

These pertain to salvation, but no man can be saved by his good deeds. It is only well with any man, when the sin question has been settled with God through Jesus Christ. Nothing can cover the sin, beyond the power of God to detect it, says the blood of Jesus Christ. When the individual is thus covered with blood, he can truly say it is well.

Following the sermon, a brief after-service was conducted by the Rev. E. Stewart. The Woman's Bible class conducted by Mrs. Stewart, in the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Stewart, accompanied by friends, visited the O. S. and S. O. Home, and held services in the chapel at the institution. The Rev. Mr. Stewart, preached an interesting sermon on "The Heart." The Rev. Mr. Flacks, led in prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Flacks will preach at the First Reformed Church, Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. and Mrs. Stewart will leave after the service for their home in Rochester.

HOLADAY ASKS HIS TOWN PUT ON MAP

Danville, Ill., March 16.—When William P. Holaday, successor in congress to "Uncle Joe" Cannon, takes his seat at Washington he will have one "assignment" which the folks back home will insist that he not neglect. That assignment is "Put George-town on the map."

For some unknown reason Georgetown, Illinois, has been neglected by the makers of maps of the country and cannot be found. When towns only half its size are always found, and Georgetown goes neglected—to all appearances unknown and unheard-of—the residents of that town are far from pleased. And they have placed upon the shoulders of representative Holaday the responsibility of "getting Georgetown on the map."

The discovery was made when one proud resident of Georgetown—Holaday's "home town"—was discussing the new Congressman at a Chicago club.

"He's from my home town," the booster declared.

"And where's Georgetown?" he was asked.

A map was produced but nowhere could Georgetown be found.

Government map makers explained there "wasn't room enough for Georgetown, when the matter was brought to their attention."

Holaday is said to have agreed with his fellow townsmen that George town certainly is entitled to at least a small dot on the map and he's out to get it.

DAYTON TEAM TO PLAY HERE

The Dayton Hi Y basketball team will engage the sturdy Paris High team of Kentucky in a game at the East High gym on Saturday night.

The game promises to be a thriller as both teams are about evenly matched. The East High team defeated the Dayton Hi Y team at Dayton this year and also gave them a drubbing at the East gym. There will be a preliminary which will get under way at 7:30. A competent official will be in charge.

XENIANS STAR AT WASHINGTON.

"Bob 'Butch' Gegner and Russell 'Squeek' Vannorsdall, both Central High court stars last year who played with Washington C. H., this season led all other Washington players in scoring points while Gegner is believed to have set up a scoring record that has never been excelled in the Fayette County metropolis.

Washington won eight of the 12 regularly scheduled games running up 298 points to 232 scored by opponents, and being defeated by South High of Columbus 14 to 10 in the first round of the finals of the state basketball tournament at Columbus.

During the season Gegner contributed 199 of the 298 points scored by his team, an average of 16.6 points per game.

His scoring included 64 field goals and 71 from the foul mark. Vannorsdall was next highest man in the scoring 43 points compiled from 19 field goals and five foul goals. The nearest competition to these lads was Baker, who registered 20 points for the season. Gegner is believed to have set up a scoring record that has never been excelled in the Fayette County metropolis.

King Gustave of Sweden and Mary Garden, the prima donna, were members of a notable gallery.

Will Is Probated

The will of A. J. Chambliss, admitted to probate Thursday disposes of an estate valued at $2,500, consisting of personal property. The will provides that the testator's life insurance from the Western and Southern Company be used to pay the funeral debts and that the life insurance in the Metropolitan Company, carried by the Hooven and Allison Company, be divided equally between the son, Ralph and daughter, Hattie Irwin. The former is to be given $400 additional and the latter $200 additional. The son, Harry Chambliss is bequeathed $300 and another son, Ben Chambliss, $100. The will provides that a patent owned by the testator, if sold, the proceeds are to be divided between all the children equally, after R. W. Irwin receives $500. Ralph Chambliss was named executor without bond.

The senior class has appointed a committee to select a play to be given in June.

ROMAN SOCIETY APATHETIC OVER JOLANDA TROTH

Rome, March 16.— Mixed sentiments over the engagement of Princess Jolanda and Count Calvi are swaying Italy.

The middle classes are highly enthusiastic over the match because of its romantic character which on the other hand, is one of the chief objections of other, and higher, social strata.

Those who are included in the latter category whisper that while Count Calvi is undoubtedly of good family the Princess might have found a husband among some of the several princes of the Italian royal family who have been considered more suitable by the peerage. They whisper that the count really is not considered a scion of the "chosen aristocracy."

The fact is that the princess's engagement is purely a love affair that has surprised not only society but the court as well, including the sovereigns. It is openly said that the dower-Queen Margherita and the Duchess of Aosta are very much annoyed both at the choice of Jolanda and the fact that the king's consent was given without their being consulted. So it has been noticed that both of them did not put in appearance at the Quirinal reception at which the engagement was officially announced.

Also it was noted that no one of the family of the bridegroom was with him on this occasion. This seems to confirm the rumors that the king has given his consent to the marriage just to please his daughter, but it is not a willing concession, and it has been qualified by several drastic conditions. The first is that he accepts the bridegroom but draws the line at his family; the second is that once married Jolanda is not to live in Rome; third, no special title is to be bestowed on the husband; fourth, the dowry to be moderate in view of the simplicity of the marriage and the modest situation of the husband's family. (There is talk of the king making a gift to his daughter of ten million lire.)

Princess Jolanda has bravely accepted all conditions. As soon as she is married she is going to live in Pierrolo, a small provincial town where her husband will continue to act as one of the riding masters at the famous cavalry school. Already several villas have been inspected for

The interclass games of the college are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The freshmen and senior girls played Tuesday night. The score was 18 to 18 in favor of the seniors. The juniors and senior boys also played. The score was 21 to 6 in favor of the seniors. The sophomores and junior girls played Wednesday night also freshmen and sophomore boys. The finals will be played Thursday night. The winning classes will receive numerals. During the girls game Tuesday night the seniors pulled a stunt. The girls threw themselves on the floor and the boys came out with grips and tested their temperatures and fanned them. They tried to give some class yells and songs but the crowd drowned them out.

S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, even actually taken advantage of this fact?

It stands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-

tearing, unrelenting itching, pimples, blackheads, boils, they break up and go when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1820!

S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders! Eczema sufferers are well known to us mortals. When you put these facts together, when to continue to have eczema and "in" eruptions looks more like a sin in a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is K. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it roots rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run down. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

Eighty chapters were represented at the State Conference. Thursday afternoon the reports of the Chapter Regents were received.

Miss Florence E. Allen, of Cleveland, Justice of the Ohio Supreme Court, addressed the delegates, Thursday night on "The Supreme Challenge." "The supreme challenge of the hour is that governments should deal justly in all things," she said.

"Governments of today, for the most part, are not just in a good many things. For instance they are not just when it comes to the matter of war.

They do not do all in their power to prevent the coming of war. They would stop war if they knew it was the wish of the people that war cease.

"Long ago killing between individuals was made a crime. How horrible it is to think that in this day and age and in our vaunted Christian civilization whatal killing is still permitted to go on unmolested by the stern hand of law. The laws that govern war are ridiculous."

Mrs. Hobart, the new State Regent, has been connected with the D. A. R., and the Cincinnati chapter, since 1909. CELEBRATE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

NEW POLICEMAN IS OVER SIX FEET-ON DUTY ON THURSDAY

With the resignation of Patrolman Fred Jones effective Thursday evening, Chief of Police M. E. Graham announced a department shift to take care of the emergency by transferring Patrolman Ancil Stephens from night to day duty in Jones' place and putting John L. Stephens, 23, on probationary work at night.

John L. Stephens came here a year ago from Manchester, Ohio, and he presented Chief Graham with letters of recommendation from prominent citizens and police officials of that city. His Army discharge papers show that he was a member of the Military Police had had special police training in the Army, and at the time of his discharge ranked as a Police Inspector. The embryo policeman is six feet, three inches tall.

Because of the present emergency, John L. Stephens was started on the streets Thursday night under the tutelage of Patrolman Charles Simms, the veteran, who has "broken in" more than a score of new policemen and Patrolman Harry Cramer.

The civil service commission has announced Thursday March 22 at 7:00 o'clock in the evening for the police examination but the new patrolman will be used on trial until he can take the examination.

Patrolman Jones turned in his badge, club and cap, shield Thursday night for the last time. With David Mangen, former police Lieutenant he has purchased the Cloverleaf Delicatessen, East Main Street, and will take charge of that establishment Monday.

MILLION DOLLAR DOLLS PLAY HERE

A special engagement of the "Million Dollar Dolls," one of the liveliest and kickiest musical comedy offerings on the road this season, will be played at City Hall Theater Saturday through the arrangements made by the Standard Amusement Company.

An off-date on the company's tour of this section enabled the local company to book the company in here for the special engagement, which is being widely heralded.

Sidney Hamilton, who has previously delighted Xenia audiences with his musical nonsense and tomfoolery, is leading comedian with the "Million Dollar Doll Company."

Twenty five people are carried in the cast, including a troupe of carefully selected girls, who have been successfully getting away with their widespread exploitation as "million dollar dolls."

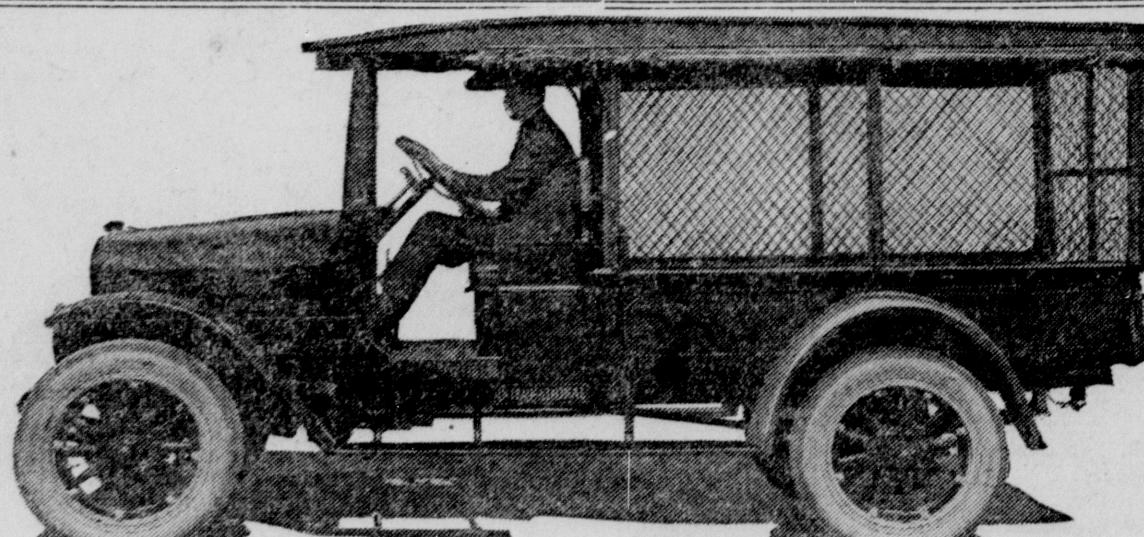

The following children survive.

Mrs. Wakely, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, of New Osborn, Miss Eva Lucas, of Dayton, and Mrs. Joshua Holland, of near Spring Valley, a step-daughter. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the Wakely home, with interment at the Spring Valley Cemetery.

CASE TO BE AIRED

R. W. Spurlock, 45, former Xenian, was arrested five miles south of Washington C. H. in Fayette County Thursday by Sheriff Morris Sharp, and returned to this city on a warrant based on an affidavit charging a statutory offense filed by Mrs. Mary Baker, South Galloway Street. GRACE SENDS NOTE TO DICK BY CHINA BOY

CHAPTER 24

Ann was trembling, but no sign of perturbation appeared in her quiet voice as she answered Dick's "why?" "I couldn't wait upon her any longer," she replied.

"Wait upon her? Why she spent all her time taking care of me, I looked annoyed, puzzled.

"She never helped me at all, Dick had her meals to prepare, and until I refused to do it, her bed to make, her room to tidy, even her clothes to pick up.

"I haven't strength to do anything unnecessary."

"But how did she come to decide to go without bidding me goodbye?"

"Ned came for her. I telephoned him to. That is all there is to it, Dick dear.

"Now I must go out and see that the men are doing as they should.

"You will be surprised when you see how fast the picking has progressed,"

Rising, Ann left the room, and also her very much disturbed man with-in.

"Was he going to be angry? Make it hard and unpleasant for her when she had worked so faithfully, endured so much? When she went in to him again an hour later, carrying an immense orange in her hand, he said:

"I hope you were pleasant to Grace, Ann. She's been a brick. I don't know how I should have stood this confinement if she hadn't been here to amuse me."

"I was not unpleasant, Dick. I simply told her I could entertain her no longer. Isn't this a beauty?" she laid the orange on the bed.

"She'll be over as soon as she gets rested," Dick said, absent-mindedly looking at the orange.

"I expect she was glad to go. She must be tired playing nurse to a cranky fellow who was all the time kicking because he couldn't get out. But somehow I can't quite understand her going without saying goodbye." He looked keenly at Ann.

Ann had not mentioned she whiskey, neither did he. But she knew that sometimes they would have to talk of it; she felt that he must know it had something to do with what had happened.

"You were asleep," evasively Ann replied.

Two days passed and there had been no sign from Grace, no word.

Dick's crutches, ordered by the doctor, had arrived and he would soon be learning to use them, perhaps that week.

He was elated, fretted to get up and try them, but Ann was insistent that he obey the doctors orders.

She had been very busy, and Dick, noting her tired eyes, her worn out look, and laying it all to the work, had insisted that Little Jack should be brought into the bedroom, his crib near him when the little fellow was asleep or that he be on the bed beside him when awake.

"He never wanted him when she was here," Ann said with bitterness. "She made him forget both of us."

The weather was gloriously balmy and as it usual in the country doors.

Ann had been in the back of the house, but came around the side just in time to see a China boy leave the front porch.

"What do you want?" she asked.

"Me last nothing, me bring letter, boss."

Ann said nothing more to the boy, he was not her way to question servants, either her own or those of others.

He look like a boy Bessie once had employed, but the Chinese look so much alike she couldn't be sure.

Neither did she question Dick. She had a strong suspicion the letter was from Grace.

Dick was usually confidential with her about his affairs, always telling her to read his letters, frequently asking her to answer them, yet he made no mention of the one left by the Chinese boy.

She knew it was from Grace, that her version of her dismissal had reached Dick.

What would she say? How try to make Dick feel she had been abused, ill-treated? And would Dick accept what she said, instead of believing what she, his wife, had told him?

Had she been foolish to send Grace away and so give him a chance to take her part against his wife?

All these questions she asked herself over and over, as she went about her work either in the house, or in her frequent trips to the orchard to see how her men were getting on.

Ned and Bessie had been over, but neither had ask questions.

Ned because he probably had heard Grace's version, an naturally perhaps had sided with his cousin, Bessie, because she disliked to bring up a subject she knew disagreeable before Dick and Ned.

But one day when Hugh Norton call, and inquired for Grace, Ann said:

"I couldn't entertain her any longer, Hugh."

"I am glad you finally realized that,

Ann.

She is very selfish, and I know made you more work. You look terribly tired. You are doing too much, I wish there was some way I could help you."

"You do help me, Hugh—how much you cannot imagine." Then more brightly, "Dick will soon be around now, and while he can't do anything much himself for some time, he can look after the men, attend to harvesting the rest of the crop."

Tomorrow—Ann's Chances On Grace's Note to Dick.

PRISON FULL SO WOMAN RETURNED

Federal officials in Dayton are worrying over disposition of Ida Eldemiller, 58, of Troy, who was convicted in federal court last week of sending obscene letter and post cards through the mail.

U. S. Marshal Tom Donovan returned to Dayton with Mrs. Eldemiller from the woman's prison at Shakopee, Minn., Wednesday night, because the prison was full. The woman had been sentenced there for three years after she had been originally sentenced to the woman's prison at Jefferson Mo., and the court found the government's contract with that prison had expired.

The woman is confined in the Montgomery County jail awaiting action of the officials in finding a prison for her.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices.

He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water brash, neusea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive acids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of ad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of sufferers with excellent results.
